WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Directions: When the names of countries are pronounced they may remind us of a few other things and ideas. For example, a question is asked, “Where would a fish go if it needed new fins?” To Finland of course! So, use your imagination and try to “puzzle out” the answers to the questions below. If you get them all, you not only know your geography, but you are a good puzzle-solver, as well.

1. “I need some ties for birthday presents. “To what country should I go?” ____________________________

2. “Where can I buy some really loud fireworks?” ____________________________

3. Telephone poles should be plentiful in this country! ____________________________

4. Ham and eggs go together, so do beans and ???
   ____________________________
   ____________________________

5. The main part of almost every Thanksgiving meal is plentiful in this country.
   ____________________________

6. There’s no problem serving cold drinks in this country.
   ____________________________
7. I wonder where I can get a beautiful wool robe to keep me warm.

8. The people in this country buy lots of song sheets so they can have a good time at parties.

9. They have many special sales on dinnerware in this country.

10. In this country they don’t say “Oh, Boy!” They say ???

11. There are lots of Cub Scouts in this country.

12. “Waitress, may I have a ___ sugar, please?”

13. You could get a nice tan in this country.

14. “Your wheels aren’t turning smoothly? They’re squeaky? You could get just what you need to fix them in this country.”
15. Everybody gets enough to eat in this country; no one goes ???

16. I said to her, “You really should go.” She replied to me, “No, ???”

17. He asked, “How did you get here?” I replied, “???, that’s how I got here.”

18. Men in this country probably wear a lot of suits.